At the conclusion of this program participants will be able to:

- Understand the difference between “disparity” and “inequality”
- Critically examine and evaluate the social determinants of health
- Translate these insights for application within the healthcare setting

Participants will also link this information to Relationship-Centered Care concepts and identify ways to improve their relationships with patients in a broadly diverse community.

Pre-register by May 14: Mail RSVP below with payment OR register by email to rccswmi@gmail.com & pay at the door with cash or check payable to “The Forum – RCC”. For questions contact Bill Reed 269-324-0512 or rccswmi@gmail.com

1.5 Continuing education contact hours may be awarded for nurses.

Attendance is required for the entire presentation. Completion/submission of an evaluation form is required to receive a contact hour certificate.
